WALKER BROTHERS LEAD

OTHER COMMERCIAL MEN WHO ARE INTERESTED SPEAK OUT.

A few ripe nuts for the Chief of Department to Crack at His Leisure—General Expression of Sentiment in Favor of Donovan and Sullivan—Both Considered the Superior of the Chief as Fire Fighters.

Public sentiment in the case of Assistant Donovan and Captain Sullivan, the two members of the fire department, who were suspended by order of the chief some days ago, still continues to be in favor of the men, as will be seen by the following expressions collected from among the leading business men of the city:

Walker Bros. Bank by M. H. Walker: We have been acquainted with Assistant Chief W. Donovan and cal, reliable fire fighters, and would be sorry to see them out of the fire department through filing of frivolous charges.

F. Coalter, of Daynes & Coalter—in my opinion the department is in a most wretched condition, through the seeming incapacity of Chief Devine to agree with his men. The two men, Donovan and Sullivan, he has caused to be suspended, and the general reputation of being the best men in the department, for they are experienced, practical and fearless. While not wishing to censure any one, it is a disagreeable fact to know if a large fire broke out there are now no experienced officers to cope with it, and whilst aware of some of the men's capabilities, still without experience, officers they are at a great disadvantage and cannot do good work.

Charles Gates, proprietor Wonder-land—Whilst not having closely followed the proceedings in the courts, I am strongly of the opinion if the board drafts rules for the governing of the department, the chief should set an example of obeying them in the strict sense of the law.

W. W. Hall, jeweler—From personal knowledge of Assistant Chief Devine and Captain Sullivan, I know them to be competent, first-class firemen. In fires they are cool, calm and are obeyed with dispatch by the men under their command. There are no genuine grounds for their suspension and a gross injustice would be done them and the city if discharged.

S. Simon—From personal knowledge of Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan to be most able, efficient men, and strenuously desire to see them retained in the fire department.

Story of Two Mere Lads Who Want to Become Tough—They Stole Horses and Would Have Held Up Street Cars But for the Sheriff—Exchange Shots with Officers Sent After Them—Sure to Be Captured, as They Are Practically Surrounded.

One would naturally infer that the days of Dick Turpins and Jesse Jameses were ended, since the blood and fire of the yellow-backed youth with its thrilling events has been succeeded by the more prosaic tales of "Nights," but such does not seem to be the case.

Deputy Sheriffs Gibbs and Smith, together with the sheriff of Summit honest young man and only wanted employment.

This declaration on his part was followed by a command to throw up his hands. They were no use in this, obeying, as the fellow who gave the order had him covered. They took his rifle from him and all the money he had, amounting to something over $10. This was on Friday last. The young man came to the city and reported the facts to the sheriff. Gibbs and Smith were at once dispatched after them and Sheriff Hardy telephoned descriptions of the two to Park City, Echo and all the surrounding towns.

Yesterday morning, information was received from Gibbs under two of Echo saying that Sheriff Harding had encountered the men and shots had been exchanged. This was the same engagement reported in yesterday's Herald.

It is confidently asserted the men will be captured. The country where they are is well guarded and as they cannot be expected to know it as well as the men who are on the lookout for them, it follows they must be apprehended, although trouble is expected as they surrender, they will be hanged and then the four men, a reputation for being especially quick on the draw, while the latter is a game little rooster himself.

Through the efforts of the sheriff much of the plunder taken by the pair has been recovered, together with a horse or two stolen from Park City.

A committee to award the prize at the mask ball the first will be chosen from Ogden, Provo and Salt Lake citizens.

SPIRITUALISTIC SCIENCE.

Occultism and Magnetism, Mixed with Hypnotism, Make Therapeutics.

At the old Federated Trades hall, No. 6 East Second South street, last evening, John Stubbs discoursed on the topic "The Philosophy of Hypnotism, Magnetism and Occultism: Their Relation to Each Other as Therapeutic Agents."

The lecture was very well attended by the laboring men of the city, who have made occultism and hypnotism a study for several months. The best explanation of the speaker was heartily appreciated by the people who listened, inasmuch as his discourse shed many new lights upon the subject treated.

In the position of combined therapeutic agents, magnetism, hypnotism and occultism may be said to be the relation of first cousin to each other, by marriage. This has been demonstrated time and time again. If anything the relationship between the two former is even more close than with the latter, although it is enough in the combination all three are the results of careful study of something we don't know a thing about and cannot learn if we tried for a thousand years.

Professor Dingbat, the author of the recent treatise on "The Whiteness of the R," which has attracted so much attention in the world of science, has demonstrated several times, the accuracy of the hazy hypothesis which connects their insidiously but at the same time harmoniously and pathologically with the tenets of the advanced position taken in the position of combined therapeutic agents, magnetism, hypnotism and occultism may be said to be the relation of first cousin to each other, by marriage.

They are Fred George, aged 20, and Pat Cochran, aged 24, both of this city, and are indulging in their first attempt at defying law and order and making of themselves terrors to honest people.

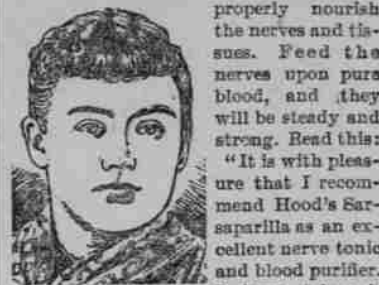

This precious pair have been engaged for some time in stealing harness, saddles and other truck between this city and Park City, and up to a short time ago confined themselves to taking small stuff, which could easily be conveyed away and disposed of.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restores Strength and Bodily Vigor.

The cause of that tired, weak, nervous condition in which so many people find themselves, is the failure of the blood to properly nourish the nerves and tissues.

Feed the nerves upon pure blood, and they will be steady and strong. Read this: "It is with pleasure that I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent nerve tonic and blood purifier. I have taken it more than once and am taking it now. I was tired, my body ached, and I felt very badly all over. I was afraid I would be sick. I thought I would take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and

A SCENE AT TAMMANY HALL LAST WEEK, WHEN THE RETURNS FROM THE DISTRICT ELECTIONS WERE COMING IN.

Captain P. J. Sullivan for some time and personally I know them to be most capable and efficient men, as likewise is the opinion of others who have conversed with me. I cannot understand how Chief Devine can consistently bring charges of incompetency against these men, who were mostly men efficiently fighting fires and Devine's appointment was thought of.

Ell L. Price, Main street grocer, is of the opinion that the old men should not be let out to make place for inexperienced men. No department can be efficient if so manned. It is strange if Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan were inefficient why charges were not preferred against them before.

L. W. Dittman, Agent Lemp's Brewing company, I am of opinion that the muddle and rancor in the fire department is caused by the bull-headedness of Chief Devine, and there is no doubt of the efficiency of Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan. Devine alone is to blame in the matter. The department was respected and capable when he took it.

J. C. Taylor, Pennsylvania Mutual Life, I think there must be some personal animus behind these charges, and suspensions. Am very sorry that trouble has broken out. It is necessary for the safety of the lives and property that harmony and efficiency should be preserved at all hazards.

M. H. Desky, Clothier, Main street; if what I have read is correct, I think that the word of seventeen firemen should be equal that of one fire chief. I would support any plan that would again place the department in an efficient state.

I. W. Robinson, of the firm of Robinson & West, Main street—I am of the opinion that it is wrong to suspend and dismiss men on trivial charges, who have always proved themselves efficient and capable and rendered good work before and since the present chief has been appointed. Donovan and Sullivan have always been considered good men.

H. A. Smith, attorney—I am of the opinion Chief Devine is at the bottom of all the trouble of recent date in the fire department. It appears on the face of it that he wishes to gather round him men subservient to his wishes, irrespective of the best points I have known Donovan and Sullivan some time and have seen them in action at fires, and whilst I have noticed the evident reluctance of Devine to appear to know exactly the best points to fight the fires, and without hesitation plunged into the smoke and debris and soon had the fire located. The firemen seemed to look to him for instructions. In all respects he is far and away a more competent fireman than Devine, being strong and able, and possessing the necessary courage for the business. Captain Sullivan is in my opinion a capable man and should most certainly be retained in the department.

Alce Watson, wool buyer, of Campbell & Saunders—I have personally seen Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan on duty at fires and am of the opinion they are first-class men; and to hear that charges of inefficiency have been filed against them is somewhat of a farce, inasmuch as they have been commended for their inefficiency at several fires by the newspapers and general public. I do not agree with the idea to sacrifice these two good men because they happen to have incurred the chief's personal enmity. From observation, I consider either of them better fitted for the position of fire chief than Devine.

R. Scarce, Excelsior bakery—I am in favor of Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan being retained in the department, as I believe them to be capable and practical men.

W. S. Barnes, of Barnes, Hardy & Co.—I most certainly think it necessary for the safety of the city that a united and efficient fire department should exist. Since the present chief has been in office trouble has always existed. I have always heard Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan spoken of in high terms as practical, reliable fire fighters, and would be sorry to see them out of the fire department through filing of frivolous charges.

F. Coalter, of Daynes & Coalter—in my opinion the department is in a most wretched condition, through the seeming incapacity of Chief Devine to agree with his men. The two men, Donovan and Sullivan, he has caused to be suspended, and the general reputation of being the best men in the department, for they are experienced, practical and fearless. While not wishing to censure any one, it is a disagreeable fact to know if a large fire broke out there are now no experienced officers to cope with it, and whilst aware of some of the men's capabilities, still without experience, officers they are at a great disadvantage and cannot do good work.

Charles Gates, proprietor Wonder-land—Whilst not having closely followed the proceedings in the courts, I am strongly of the opinion if the board drafts rules for the governing of the department, the chief should set an example of obeying them in the strict sense of the law.

ment. They have second to none records, and should most certainly be acquitted of the charges of inefficiency brought against them.

George Mullett—We regret very much the charge stated by the department is in at the present time, and fear for the safety of much property, should a large fire occur. I am well acquainted with the capabilities of Assistant Chief Donovan and Captain Sullivan, and know them to be reliable and experienced and safe men, to have charge of the lives and property of the city. It would not, in my opinion, tend to restore harmony in the department by discharging these two officers, as they are respected by the public and the firemen; and are known to be exactly the men required for the positions they held. I do not arrive with this method of suspending capable officials.
